

Noble Intentions by Andrew Grey Book Club

1. What do you think of the 3rd person narration?
2. Do you like Robert, the small town solicitor when we meet him?
3. Does inheriting an earldom seem as bad as Robert's mother paints it?
4. Would you want to be in Robert's inheritance position?
5. His mother never spoke about her family or her family home, what do you think about her suddenly being upset when Robert can't afford it?
6. We meet Daniel as he turns down an offer to buy his company, how does this show the difference between him and Robert?
7. Does the idea of custom made boots sound cool?
8. Does it make sense that both Daniel and Robert go to a matchmaker?
9. What do you think of Robert and Daniel's first date?
10. Is the New York Public Library a good place to take a date?
11. Do you like Regina?
12. What do you think of the class differences or are Robert and Daniel more similar because neither grew up wealthy?
13. Does a thunderstorm seem like a romantic place for their relationship to become less businesslike?
14. What do you think of Ashton Park?
15. Are Robert's doubts about this endeavor natural?
16. Does going through the estate's records sound like fun?
17. Did the evil corporate raiders returning and trying to buy Daniel's company surprise you?
18. What did you think of the voting scene to save Daniel's company?
19. Daniel doesn't tell anyone that Robert is an earl at the reunion, what do you think?
20. Do you like the Epilogue?
21. Do you like the book?
22. Do you want to read more by the author?