

Enchanted Ivy by Sarah Beth Durst Book Club

1. What do you think of the 3rd person narration?
2. Do you like Lily?
3. What do you think of her Grandpa?
4. Does a single test that can get a student into Princeton seem really odd?
5. Do the eating clubs seem like fraternities?
6. Lily has no idea what's going on in her search for the key and neither does the reader, should the reader know more than the protagonist?
7. Do the gargoyles sound cool?
8. Does the book apocalypse in the library seem particularly creepy because libraries are places of peace and joy?
9. No one notices the misbehaving library or the weird green creature that attacks Lily, is that odd?
10. What do you think of Tye?
11. Lily was attacked by a green creature and a gargoyle is talking to her but she refuses to believe in magic, why?
12. Were you surprised that Jake turned on Lily?
13. Which do you like better the real magic Princeton or the real one?
14. Were you surprised that Lily is half dryad?
15. What do you think of Lily's mom being the dryad and her father was human?
16. Who are the villains in this book?
17. Should there be no connection between the worlds?
18. Would Halloween be a better time for this to happen than Reunion weekend?
19. Should the two keys be hiding or fighting?
20. Does loving people always hurt the good guys and benefit the bad guys?
21. Should Lily have freed the Chained Dragon?
22. What did you think of the final battle?
23. Did you like the epilogue?
24. Did you like the book?
25. Would you read more by the author?