

The Lady With the Gun Asks the Questions by Kerry Greenwood Book Club

1. What do you think of the 3rd person narration?
2. Have you read any of the other Phyrne (rhymes with briny) Fisher mysteries?
3. Did you watch the show, The Miss Fisher Mysteries?
4. Do you think you could enjoy this book without any prior knowledge of the characters?
5. Did the essay at the beginning on Phyrne Fisher help? Why or why not?
6. How do you feel about the length of the stories?
7. Did this remind you of any other short story collections? If so, which ones?
8. Did you figure out the solution of all of the stories?
9. Which is your favorite story and why?
10. Which is your least favorite story and why?
11. Who is your favorite character and why?
12. What do you think of the atmosphere and world building in the stories?
13. Did you feel like you needed the glossary at the back or knowledge of the 1920s to enjoy the stories? Why or why not?
14. Do you think a character list would have been helpful? Why or why not?
15. How do you feel about the placement of the stories and their order?
16. When characters appear in different stories, do they feel consistent? Why or why not?
17. Did you like the collection?
18. Would you read more in the series?