

Deal Breaker Book Club

1. What do you think of the 3rd person narration?
2. The first scene is Myron negotiating a sports contract, does it pull you in?
3. Do you like Myron?
4. Do you like Win?
5. What do you think of Jessica?
6. Did you expect Myron to still live at home?
7. This book was published in 1995, does it feel 20 years old?
8. Myron's personal story was a star basketball player injured in his prime, how does this shape his character?
9. Myron is also a black belt in Tae Kwon Do, does this fit with the rest of his attributes?
10. The main mystery is about pornography, does it seem somewhat quaint as it describes magazines?
11. What about the scene where Win and Myron walk into a high school and pull the fire alarm?
12. Does the Chaz Landreaux being forced to stay with the crooked agent storyline add to the book?
13. What do you think of the phone sex lines staffed by men?
14. Is Win and Myron's past as shady undercover federal agents surprising?
15. Do you see Win differently after he kills the two assassins in the bad neighborhood?
16. What do you think of Esperanza?
17. Was the golf discussion and Win's invitation for the mobster Herman to play with him a weird scene?
18. Were you surprised by what Dean Gordon said about Kathy's past and what happened to her the night she disappeared?
19. Was the scene of Jessica and Myron reuniting at a hotel necessary?
20. Does everyone in this book seem to have dirty secrets?
21. Does sleeping around and being wild seem like an odd reaction to catching your mother having an affair?
22. Did you think Christian was the killer?
23. When did you know Kathy was really dead?
24. Myron proved that his biggest client was a murderer and lost another client, who does that make you see him?
25. Did you like the book?
26. Would you read more in the series?