

Of Claws and Fangs by Faith Hunter Book Club

1. What do you think of the narration style?
2. Have you read any other Faith Hunter books?
3. Do you think you could enjoy this book without any prior knowledge of the characters?
4. Which is your favorite story and why?
6. Which is your least favorite story and why?
7. Who is your favorite character and why?
8. What do you think of the atmosphere in the stories?
9. Do you think a character list would have been helpful? Why or why not?
10. How do you feel about the placement of the stories and their order?
11. Is the first story a full story or a vignette?
12. When characters appear in different stories, do they feel consistent? Why or why not?
13. How do you feel about the stories with Beast and why?
14. What do you think of the world creation in these stories?
15. Do the Soulwood stories and the Jane Yellowrock stories have a different feel and why?
16. What do you think of the different types of supernatural beings in this collection of stories?
17. How do you feel about the stories that switch perspectives versus the ones from a single perspective?
18. Which type of supernatural would you like to be from Faith Hunter's worlds and why?
19. What do you think of the historical stories featuring Ayatas?
20. Most of the stories are short but the novella, Bound Into Darkness, is 90 pages. How does this difference in length affect your perception of the stories within the collection?
21. What do you think of the connection between the novella and the last story, The Ties that Bind?
22. Did you like the collection?
37. Would you read more in the series?