

The Bright and Breaking Sea by Chloe Neill Book Club

1. What do you think of the 3rd person narration?
2. Does the map remind you of anything else?
3. What do you think of the settings and time period of the book?
4. How does the Prologue about Gerard Rousseau (Napoleon) contribute to the book?
5. What did you think of meeting Rian and Kit in the Prologue?
6. Why do you think the time jump to 1815 is important?
7. Who is your favorite character and why?
8. Who is your least favorite character and why?
9. How does magic affect the world?
10. Would you want magic in this world? Why or why not?
11. What do you think of Kit's role in the Navy?
12. How do you feel about Brightling house?
13. What do you think of the evolution of Kit and Rian's relationship?
14. How is the role of women in this world different than the role of women during the Regency and Napoleonic era in normal history?
15. What do you think of the Fortress of the Five Pirate Kings?
16. How do you feel about the adventure scenes in the book?
17. Did you expect Dunwood to survive? Why or why not?
18. What do you think of Hetta's Principles of Self-Sufficiency?
19. What does Kit's interaction with the 3 other captains show about her character and theirs?
20. Why do you think Kit jumped in the water to save Watson during the storm?
21. What do you think of the misuse of magic in the book?
22. What did you think of the assignment for Kit and Rian at Lambeth Garden?
23. Were you surprised by the identity of the traitor? Why or why not?
24. Is the induction into the Order of Saint James and the announcement of the return of Gerard a good place to end? Why or why not?
25. Did you like the book?
26. Would you read more in the series?