

Love, Chai and Other Four-Letter Words by Annika Sharma Book Club

1. What do you think of the 3rd person narration from a dual perspective?
2. The book begins with a meeting of the four members of the Chai Masala Club, how do you feel about this introduction to these characters?
3. Do you believe in Bucket Lists for ages like 30?
4. How do you feel about Kiran's perspectives on the United States?
5. When we meet Nash, he's moving into his new apartment. How is his solo introduction different than Kiran's group introduction and what does it say about them?
6. Kiran's family is very important to her and Nash doesn't have a family. How does this shape their characters?
7. What do you think of Kiran's explanation of chai rather than the American version of chai tea latte?
8. Kiran's apartment is described as full of color, what does this say about her character?
9. Nash asks Kiran to hangout on page 37, what do you think of this interaction from both of their perspectives?
10. The Chai Masala Club discusses the fact that none of them have fallen in forever love on page 66, do you think falling in love is the biggest risk? Why or why not?
11. How does New York City shape this story?
12. Who is your favorite character and why?
13. Who is your least favorite character and why?
14. Nash asks Kiran if there was an Olympics for daily activities what would she get one for? What would you get one for?
15. How do you feel about Icebreaker activities?
16. What do you think of the friends to lovers dynamic of the development of Nash and Kiran's relationship?
17. How do you feel about the central conflict?
18. Kiran and Nash discuss soul mates, do you believe in soul mates?
19. What do you think of Nash's abandonment issues?
20. How do you feel about Kiran's parents' reaction to Nash and Kiran dating?
21. What do you think of Kiran's memories of meeting the CMC?
22. Does Nash owe Trent's mother an apology? Why or why not?
23. How do you feel about Kiran rushing to her father's bedside in India?
24. What do you think of Kiran finding her sister, Kirti?
25. Why do you think Nash flew to India?
26. What do you think of the ending?
27. Did you like the book?
28. Would you read more in the series?