

The Raven Prince by Elizabeth Hoyt Book Club

1. What do you think of the third person narration?
2. Does the fairytale excerpt at the beginning of each chapter add to the story?
3. Anna is a thirty year old widow of a solicitor and daughter of a vicar, do you like a heroine who is an adult better than an 18 year old society miss?
4. The book is also set primarily in the country rather than London, do you like the setting?
5. Do you like Anna?
6. What do you think of the Earl?
7. When the Earl sees the library he sees it as dreary and dark but when Anna sees the library she sees over a thousand books, how does this reflect their character?
8. How weird is it that an Earl has a gigantic mongrel dog that he didn't bother to name?
9. The Earl gets engaged before meeting his new secretary, Anna, how does this change the dynamics of the romance?
10. Why do you think Anna helped the ill prostitute?
11. Does Edward behave like a typical Earl when he helps his farmers get the stuck sheep?
12. What did you think of wagering on the dog coming to the name Jock for a kiss?
13. Do you like Coral?
14. Anna plans to seduce Edward in secret at a brothel, what do you think of her plan?
15. What did you think of their kiss in the stable?
16. Was Anna's deception terrible?
17. Is Edward's idea that he needs to marry Anna because they had sex in a brothel at all motivated by honor?
18. Is Felicity's quest for the letter an interesting plot point?
19. Was running away in the face of blackmail a reasonable response?
20. Was the duel necessary?
21. Were you surprised that Edward and Anna had a baby?
22. Did you like the book?
23. Would you read the rest in the series?